GRENADA COUNTY "FARM OF THE WEEK"

If this is YOUR farm, you can get, without charge, a glossy mounted picture of the farm, but you must come to the Grenada County Weekly and identify it. While you are in the GCW office, we hope to enter you in our contest for a subsequent publication, about this property and about your family. If you need other photographs of the above, either the size of your own or on postal cards, the GCW can, and will arrange for them. A reasonable charge, of course, will be made for these reproductions. Let us show you samples.

A Nation's Worship

Lesson for September 4, 1953

IT WOULD be very nice to wake up some Sunday morning and find that everybody in America had decided to join our church. Suppose that up to now you had belonged to the First Universal Church of All Angels, and there was only one congregation of that denomination in your town, along with maybe six or eight other denominations. But suppose that on this Sunday morning as you walked to church you would find the Universal Church of All Angels sign on every church building you passed. Suppose you learned by the morning paper that this was because the President of the United States (himself a prominent member of your denomination) had issued a Directive ordering all churches to come over into this one—or be abolished entirely. Well, you would know that was a dream... because this is free America, and there is not and constitutionally can never be an official, government-supported, national, established religion.

The Nucleus

So when we talk of "a nation's worship" in America, we can't mean what we would mean in a country where everybody is dragged into one single kind of church, a country where to be born into the nation is to be born into the church at the same time. Still, there is sense in talking about the nation at worship, for take us by and large, we do worship; the church is too prominent an object in every landscape to be overlooked. And even in free America, where church and state are separate, we can learn something from the ancient Hebrews who combined church and state in one. The first thing we learn is not to be discouraged by the fact that many people don't go to church at all. The whole story of Ezra and Nehemiah, the prophets of Haggai and Zechariah, show us that there were great masses of indifferent people in Judah after the "Return" and the restoration of the worship at the high altar in Jerusalem. There were the same difficulties with a building program that we have; preaching fell on many a deaf ear, just like now. Worship is now, and has always been, carried on, in the true sense, not by the masses but by a nucleus of devoted men and women.

The Opposition

The Jews who returned to Palestine to get their religion organized and under way again, with public services and all, found out another thing which we Americans might as well learn—indeed, we have learned it. That is, not only is there indifference to religion, but it has many enemies. It is nothing but prettified nonsense to suppose that everybody in this world means well, that we all are the welfare of society. It is contrary to the facts to believe that even those who do not worship with us and will not join us nevertheless wish us well. Don't deceive yourself. There are in America as there are everywhere, people who are plain mean. There are businesses that contribute to crime, indeed some businesses that even a not-too-moral police force labels as crime. Those who live by the profits of these enterprises just hate the church; let's face it.

Can Government Help?

Now in ancient Palestine, say Zechariah's time, not to mention earlier times, church and state helped and supported each other. King and high priest might even be related. Especially after the Exile, church and state became practically one. In our free America—and we would not wish it unfree, for a moment—can the government do anything to help the church? Readers who belong to Sunday school classes can start a very interesting discussion by asking that question. How can Government help the church? Ought Government to try to help us? One way, surely, by which the State can aid the church, is by laws which will keep the Lord's Day free, so far as possible, from work-day necessities. Another way is by setting an example. When leaders in government set an example of sharing in the public and private worship of God, the nation is all the better for it. Miss Donna Jean Sharp and David Owen Cole Wed In
Impressive Ceremony August 26th

In a wedding of wide social interest at 8 o'clock Friday evening, Miss Donna Jean Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donald Sharp of Grenada, became the bride of David Owen Cole, son of Mrs. Arthur A. Archer and the late Henry Byars Cole of West Point, Miss. The First Methodist Church of Grenada was the setting for the beautiful and impressive ceremony, Rev. Felix A. Sutphin, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The soft glow of lighted tapers, small lace cap embroidered with held in branched candelabra, illuminated the scene. Elaborate arrangements of magnolias, graceful palm trees and plumose ferns banked against a white background with trelises of southern smilax, was further enhanced by the fern entwined columns and the bridal arch laden with magnolia blossoms and white satin bows. Here, indeed, was an ideal beautiful setting for the wedding party which formed a charming tableau of grace and charm.

The ceremony was preceded by a program of nuptial music presented by Miss Peggie Evans at the organ and soloist Miss Ann Doty of Jackson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original designed gown of delicate French chantilly and moonlight satin, fashioned along princess lines. The tulle-filled yoke enhanced with a soft tracing of lace extending into it. The lace sleeves were long, forming bridal points over the hands. The full skirt which fell into a cathedral train featured a wide panel of lace extending from the waist panel over each side, and the entire skirt, with lace panels, fell into the graceful cathedral train. Her jewelry consisted of an heirloom diamond brooch belonging to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. James H. Caldwell, Sr. of Charleston, Miss.

The veil of French illusion voile, was waist length, and fell from a

The bride's mother, Mrs. Sharp, wore a formal of aqua chiffon with imported lace bolero. She chose a small hat fashioned of aqua velvet leaves, with veil trimmed with rhinestones. Her corsage was of pink gerberas.

The groom's mother was attired in a lovely formal dress of Ayres of Roses Chiffon skirt with lace bodice and small hat of matching lace leaves. Her corsage was of pink gerberas.

Reception

At 9 o'clock the Monte Cristo was reserved for a beautifully planned reception, by members of the bride's family. Meddies R. B. Townes, F. R. Lickfold, Mary Ida Parks, Lynn Williams and Miss Bess Sharp, honoring the bride and groom, their parents and the wedding attendants.

Two tables were arranged, both draped with imported cut-work cloths. On one table the very beautiful three-tiered wedding cake was placed. It was surrounded by lovely plumose ferns and roses. Pink tapers in silver candelabra flanked the cake, and on the other table a huge punch bowl, also encircled with ferns and roses, and lighted tapers, was placed.

Assisting the hostesses at the reception were Mrs. H. B. Cole of Memphis, Miss Nancy Williams of Memphis, Mrs. Jim Barron of State College, Miss Kay Marshall of West Point, Miss. Miss Kathy Caldwell of Marks, Miss. Miss Meredith Wilson of Sardis, Miss Maryhardy Bays and Miss Mary Sharp Lickfold.

At the bride's book, Mrs. Robert W. Sharp, grandmother of the bride and Miss Bird Sharp, great-aunt, presided.

After the reception the happy couple left for a honeymoon in the Smoke Mountains. For travel the bride wore a three piece suit of winter cotton in jewel tone blue, brown hat and accessories and a corsage of orchids from her wedding bouquet.

After the honeymoon they will reside at the U. of Mississippi where the groom will attend graduate school. His bride graduated in June '55.

"Souls In Conflict", newest film release by Billy Graham Evangelistic Films, Inc. will be shown in Grenada on September 2 at 7:30 p. m. at the First Baptist Church. Sponsor is the Grenada County Baptist Ass'n. All seats are free. Everyone is invited. "Souls In Conflict" was filmed during Graham's world-publicized London Crusade. It is a full feature-length film in color and it is through screen presentations such as the one scheduled for Grenada that the Graham organization anticipates surpassing the success of an earlier film "Mr. Texas", described as "the world's first Christian Western", which played to more than 5,000,000 persons in its first two years of showings and to which 136,000 "decisions for Christ" are attributed. The story of "Souls In Conflict" encompasses the lives of three "typical" individuals, troubled with the present and completely confused about the future. Joan Winnill, star of the British

TV thriller, "Epitaph for a Spy", plays an actress; Eric Micklewood and Charles Leno portray a jet pilot and a factory worker, respectively. Their need for a soul-satisfying religious experience is realized when each attends one of Graham's meetings in Harringay Area, London's vast stadium.

TO THE PEOPLE OF BEAT ONE

I hope you will accept this as a preliminary expression of my sincerest appreciation and gratitude for the splendid vote of confidence which you gave me in reelecting me as your supervisor. It is my desire to express my appreciation to you more forcefully by giving you the best service of which I am capable during the next four years.

Let me emphasize that I am going to try to be the supervisor of all of the people of Beat One, and I shall work at all times to help promote the welfare of our beat and our county. As far as I am concerned the differences of the recent political campaign are forgotten. I hold no feeling or resentment against any of my honorable opponents or against any of their supporters. I urge all of them to join with me in helping make the next four years constructive ones for our community.

Please remember that I am your servant and that I want you to call on me when I can be of assistance to you. Again let me thank you for your courtesies to me in the campaign and to your loyal support in the elections.
